

PBS NEWSHOUR

STUDENT REPORTING LABS

Lesson 3.2 Team Work: Worksheet A

Instructions: After you have selected your topic and story idea use this sheet to plan your shoot.

Team Name _____

Group Rules and Expectations

How do we pick who gets what job:

What are the goals of the team:

Team Mascot:

Team Motto:

What do we do first each time we work together:

Getting Kicked out

If you _____ then you will be removed from the team.

List all of your team members and write each member's occupation on the line next to their name.
Choose from the following: Script Writer, Camera Operator, Set/Prop Designer, Credits, Cue Card

Holder, Reporter. (You can have team members with more than one job and you can have several jobs used more than once.)

Name _____	Occupation _____
Name _____	Occupation _____
Name _____	Occupation _____
Name _____	Occupation _____
Name _____	Occupation _____

1. What is your selected theme and project topic?

2. Are you interviewing people? If so, who, when and why are you interviewing them?

3. What equipment will you need for your shoot?

4. Are you using a backdrop? How does the background relate to your segment?

Scripting Sample

Video	Audio
-------	-------

<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Kids lining up in the cafeteria 2. Close-up of student being handed a hamburger 3. Close-up of brand label on burger wrapping 	It's another lunch hour at Riverview Secondary School. As students eagerly line up for their lunches, hamburgers are a popular choice. But not just any hamburgers. At Riverview, it's "McDougall's" fast food or nothing.
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Wide shot of cafeteria showing McDougall's posters, drink machines 2. Zoom in to students eating at a table, with McDougall's fries, burgers etc. 3. Close-up of first student as she speaks 4. Wide shot of student's faces listening 5. Close-up of second student speaking 	Last September, McDougall's bought the rights to serve food in the cafeteria at Riverview. Now, when students sit down to eat, they're surrounded by McDougall's branding and limited to McDougall's fast food and drinks. Student reactions are mixed, with many students saying they like having McDougall's food for lunch, and others saying that they resent being used as a captive audience for one food company.
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Wide shot of Principal Smith standing in the music room listening to the varsity band. Zoom in to him talking. 2. Close-up of school nurse, standing by vending machines 3. Wide shot of parents discussing this at a school council meeting 	"It's a matter of funding" says Principal Smith. "The money we get from this concession pays for other school programs." Nurse Baker agrees, but points out the importance of providing juice, milk and healthy snacks to students, in addition to fast food. Parents also have their reservations. Riverview's parent council wants to revisit this topic at the end of the school year.

Instructions: Fill in your script using the space below.

Video	Audio